

Rutgers Risk Assessment Boot Camp

TOPICS COVERED

Risk analysis, systematic review, weight of evidence, hazard identification, susceptible populations, exposure pathways, point-of-departure, reference values, and more. Case studies and hands-on exercises will provide real world scenarios for application of content.

--Virtual Training --

Week 1: January 4-7

Week 2: January 11-14

8 interactive sessions
10 AM-12 PM EST

Limited Spots – Sign up early!

INSTRUCTORS

Marie Fortin, PhD,
DABT, ERT
Assoc. Director,
Toxicology
Jazz Pharmaceuticals

Virunya Bhat, MS,
PhD, DABT
Senior Scientist,
ToxStrategies, Inc.

Kristian Fried,
PhD, DABT, ERT
Senior Consultant
Integral Consulting

Ila Cote, PhD
Adjunct Professor,
U. Colorado School
of Public Health
Former US EPA
Risk Assessor

Requirements: Participants should be a trainee or recent grad who has completed a minimum of one course in toxicology.

Sponsored by the EOHSI Institute and Joint Graduate Program in Toxicology

NIH T32ES007147, NIH UL1TR003017 & NIH U54AR055073

For more information: aleksunes@eohsi.rutgers.edu